Do I have to buy a seat for my dancer if they are performing?

If your dancer is wishing to watch part of the show in the audience you will need to purchase a ticket for them (this is theatre policy). If performing in the first half they may wish to watch the second half in the audience. If performing in the second half they may wish to watch the first half in the audience. Just be sure your dancer is back stage at the required time if performing. We do have live TV feed available backstage of both performances for dancers to enjoy.

Do I have to buy a seat for my baby?

Every person in the theatre must have a ticket regardless of age. Complimentary tickets are available for babies (2yrs and under). If you require one of these tickets, please ensure to request it when you purchase your tickets. They are only available when you purchase your tickets. Please be considerate of others when making the choice to bring your baby to the theatre, and know that if your baby is disruptive, you may be asked to bring your baby to the lobby.
